

i travel alot and like XM radio and its services. XM is a service just like other forms of radio. if other radio stations or other forms of radio services do not like XM's way of doing its doing weather and traffic news, they should improve or find other ways to keep its liseners. satellite radio has made travel by car better and lest boring...